SUMMARY

---

Keith Curry Lance is a Ph.D. sociologist who works with libraries and library organizations—especially relating to public, school and college and university libraries—as a statistician, survey researcher, available data analyst, conference and workshop speaker, expert advisor, independent evaluator, focus group and key informant interviewer, and group facilitator.

Employment

From 1987 to 2007, he was the founding director of the Library Research Service of the CO State Library. Since retiring from that position, he has continued to work as a consultant, both independently and in association with the RSL Research Group, a consulting firm based in Louisville, CO.

Appointments

---

For four decades, he has served on and chaired research/statistics-related committees of the American Library Association (ALA) as well as its divisions, the Association for Library Service to Children (ALSC), the American Association of School Librarians (AASL), the Public Library Association (PLA), the Library Leadership And Management Association (LLAMA), and the Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Agencies (ASCLA). For two decades, he served on committees devoted to library research and statistics associated with several federal agencies, including the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science (NCLIS), and the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES).

Presentations

---

Since 1987, he has spoken at almost 250 library events in all but two U.S. states (many more than once) as well as in Australia, Canada, Portugal, and the United Kingdom. In 2002, he was a featured speaker at the White House Conference on School Libraries.

Publications

---

Since 1987, he has authored more than two dozen monographs, most being reports of studies of the educational or general social impact of libraries, and authored or co-authored more than 20 book chapters and other contributions to edited compilations. He has also authored or co-authored more than 60 articles in major library and education publications, including American Libraries, Library Journal, Library and Information Science Research, Phi Delta Kappan, School Library Monthly, and Teacher Librarian. In 2008, he co-created the Library Journal Index of Public Library Service. Since 2009, Star Library ratings based on this index have been published annually in Library Journal and cited widely in national and local media. He has served on the advisory boards of two journals, School Library Media Research and Teacher Librarian. According to Google Scholar, as of early 2018, his writings have been cited more than 2,800 times, more than 900 since 2014.

Interviews

---

Since 1991, he has been interviewed regularly by both mass media and professional news outlets. Newspapers in which he has been quoted include: Chicago Tribune, Denver Post, Detroit Free Press, Fort Collins Coloradoan, (Canada) Globe and Mail, (Little Rock) AR Democrat-Gazette, Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel, (Nashville) Tennessean, Philadelphia Daily News, Philadelphia Inquirer, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Pueblo (CO) Chieftain, Rocky Mountain News, San Francisco Chronicle, Seattle Times, and Wilmington (DE) News-Journal. Magazines and journals in which he has been quoted include: American Libraries, Education Week, Education World, Forbes, Parenting, Phi Delta Kappan, Reader's Digest, Reading Today, School Library Journal, School Library Research, Teacher, Teacher Librarian, and U.S. News & World Report. On radio, he has been interviewed on CO Public Radio, National Public Radio, and Sirius Satellite Radio (Bob Edwards Show/Weekend). On television, he has been interviewed by ABC (Australian Broadcasting Company) News-Tasmania; KCNC, Channel 4 (Denver); and KUSA, Channel 9 (Denver).

Honors

---

In 2019, he received the IL Association of School Library Educators' Crystal Honor Award; in 2013, AASL's Distinguished Service Award; in 2007, the CO Association of Libraries' Career Achievement Award; and in 2006, ASCLA's Leadership Achievement Award.
